

TRIARAMA

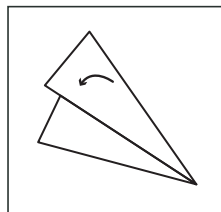

Give students the square for the triarama. They fold it to the half, open it, and fold it to the half opposite the first fold. Students need to cut on the dashed line. On the diagonal solid line, they draw the illustration based on the topic. On the lines below, they write the sentences to describe the illustrations. Once ready, place the sentences on top of the blank space and the triarama is ready.

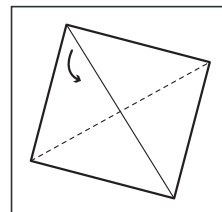

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

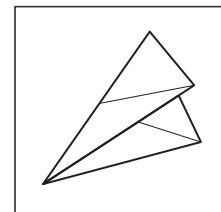

1

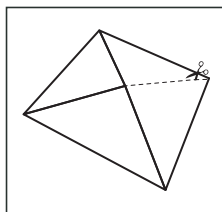

2

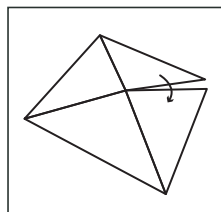

3

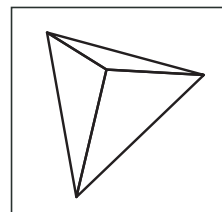

4

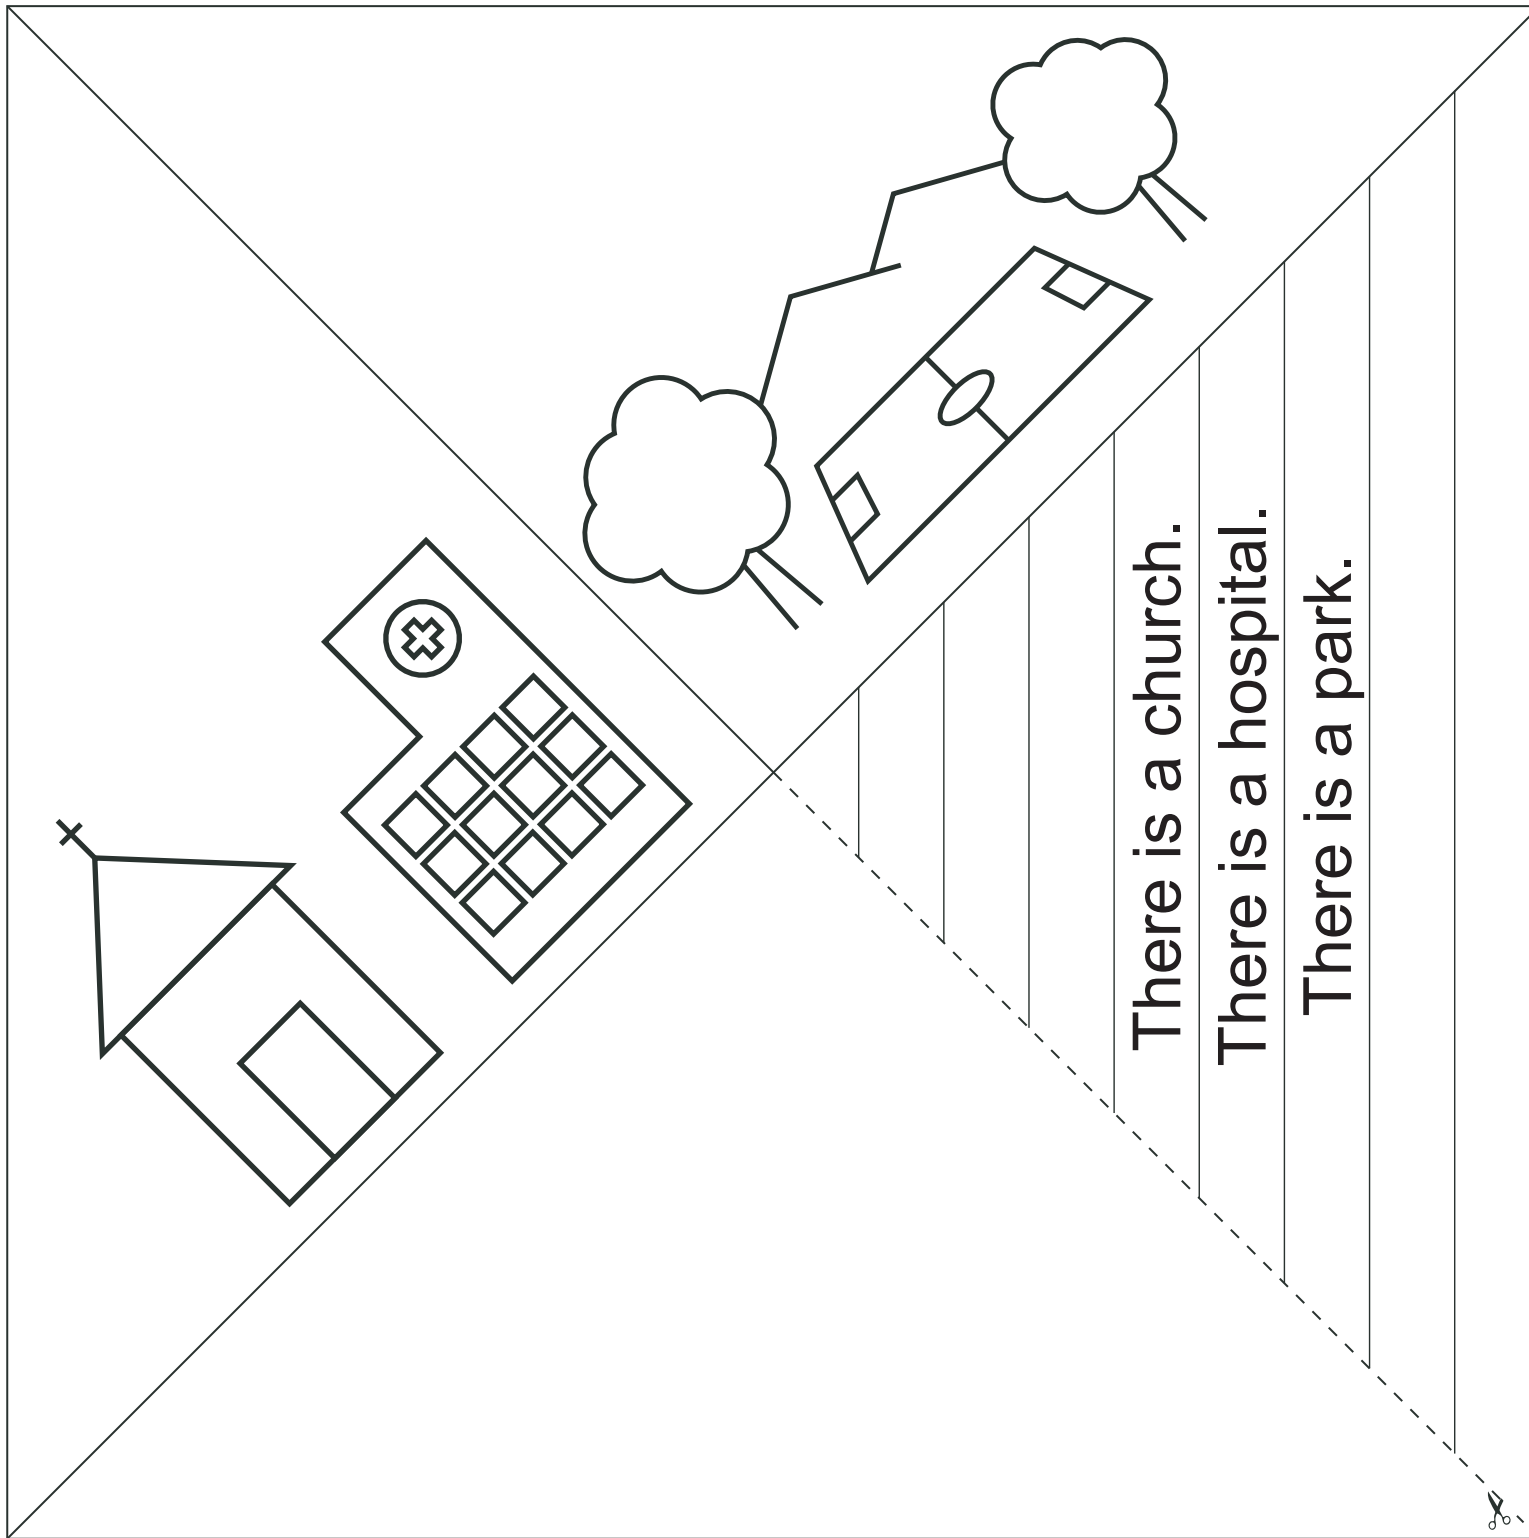

5

6

7

There is a church.

There is a hospital.

There is a park.

